Press Release

Universal Peace Day was celebrated at Rajyoga Bhawan

Chandigarh, 17 January 2010: The ascension day of Brahma Baba celebrated every year on 18th January gives us an opportunity to relocate our position of spiritual endeavor and resolve resolutely to catch up with him. Baba was the symbol of peace, love and purity. We should take pledge to inculcate his divine virtues in us. The organisation started by him has established over 9000 centers in 132 countries are doing wonderful services for spiritual and social upliftment of humanity.

This was stated by Justice A. N. Jindal, Judge Punjab and Haryana High Court as a chief guest in a public programme to pay tribute to Brahma Baba, the founding father of Brahma Kumaris organisation his 41st ascension day. The day was observed as Universal peace day throughout the globe. Hundreds of people today at Rajyoga Bhawan Sector 33-A pay homage to Pitashri Brahma's life-time devotion, dedication and contributions towards uplift of poor, downtrodden & weaker sections of society and to the cause of philanthropy, youth & women empowerment and world welfare.

Zonal coordinator of Brahma Kumaris B.K. Amir Chand said that Baba was an embodiment of tolerance, compassion, forgiveness, purity and peace. Baba's message of universal brotherhood of man, under the fatherhood of God brought real integration among people of different races, nationalities, castes and creeds and has given hope and peace to the agony-stricken world. Purity and meditation, knowledge and virtue were his main lamp of life.

Zonal Chief of institution Rajyogine B.K. Achal Didi said that in the strife-torn world, he brought peace to many homes, hopes to many dejected souls, spiritual strength to those who considered themselves too weak. He considered his critics to be his friends, for they drew his attention to certain weak points and thus kept him on the alert.

Sister B.K. Utra, B.K. Sapna and B.K. Kavita also spoke on the occasion

Over thousand people will meditate for world peace and harmony tomorrow from early morning till afternoon at 20 branches of institution in tri city. A Meditation camp will also be held from 19th January to 21st January at Rajyoga Bhawan sector 33A from 7 to 8 am and 6 to 7 pm daily.
