Future of nation is in the hands of its youth

NSS Camp Held at GMSSS-46

Chandigarh, 30 January 10: A week long Camp for NSS volunteers was organized at Govt. Modal Senior Secondary School Sector 46-D in which around 80 students participated actively. B.K. Poonam, center In charge of Brahma Kumaris sector-47 branch and B.K. Prof. Onkar Chand, Dean Research and Development of IET Bhaddal were the special invited speakers who shared their valuable views regarding the importance of social service with students.

Brahma Kumari Sis. Poonam said that the future of any nation is in the hands of its youth. The country or region which has constructive youth with positive thoughts is always progressive and touches new heights. Youth is capable of performing great tasks very easily and quickly. For the golden future of the country it is an important task to show the right direction to the youth.

Prof. Onkar Chand motivated the participants for social service. He said that youth should not waste their time in judging other people but work upon making their thoughts positive and put in untiring and determined efforts to achieve their goal. It is vital to use every second in a worthwhile way in order to achieve success and that one should also be careful in choosing the right company. He appealed the youth to let go of materialistic thinking and inspired them to constantly move towards their aim by being in harmony with the environment and people.

School Principal Sudesh Raghav said that Brahma Kumaris organisation is doing a magnificent job in carrying out its responsibility towards the society and the nation by organizing value based lectures for the youth from time to time which enables to make them full of positive energy, peaceful, determined and cultured. She called upon the youth to take maximum benefit from this camp.

Programme officer of the school Nirmal Kumar welcomed the speakers. He said that all NSS Volunteers will participate in cleanliness drive at colony number 5 tomorrow.
