A Million People to Meditate for World Peace & Harmony

(Place) , Jan. 16:

Lakhs of followers of Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya will observe 41st Spiritual Ascension Anniversary of its Corporeal Founder, Pitashri Prajapita Brahma, on Monday, 18th January, 2010 in the form of World Peace & Harmony Day.

From early morning till late evening on Monday, over a million members in 8500 centers of the institution in India and abroad will stay in silent contemplation, mass meditation and experience sharing on Pitashri Brahma's unique spiritual traits, penance, sacrifice and selfless services for realization of universal peace, harmony and brotherhood and for regeneration of moral and spiritual character of mankind.

A day before, on Sunday, a number of public programs have been organized in several main centers of the institution to commemorate on and to pay tribute to Pitashri Brahma's life-time devotion, dedication and contributions towards uplift of poor, downtrodden & weaker sections of society and to the cause of philanthropy, youth & women empowerment and world welfare.
